Description

This is a wonderful antique Victorian burr walnut, ivory, brass and turquoise bead mounted casket, circa 1870 in date. This wonderful casket has a domed hinged lid with elaborate studded brass fret-work enhanced with ivory and turquoise bead appliques. It opens to reveal a vacant interior which is lined with wonderful purple velvet and is ready to store your precious items. It has its original working lock and key with yellow tassel. This is a highly decorative piece which will make a statement once placed on any period desk. Condition: In really excellent condition having been beautifully cleaned, polished and waxed in our workshops, please see photos for confirmation. It is a popular and attractive wood whose colour ranges from near white in the sapwood to a dark hue in the heartwood. When dried in a kiln, walnut wood tends to develop a dull brown colour, but when air-dried can become a rich purplish-brown. Because of its colour, h...
