Giovanni Liberotti miniature plaster relief impressions of masterpieces of European art. This collection is an example of the type of souvenirs prized by the travelers of the Grand Tour. It is a small part of the museum's gem cast collection, which is very rich in content and versatile in appearance. Gem casts were used as valuable illustrative materials in lectures. The Grand Tour was the traditional trip of Europe undertaken by mainly upper-class European young men of means. The custom flourished from about 1660 until the advent of large-scale rail transit in th...
