

SA102466

An Unusual Late 18thc or Early
!9thc Oak Logbin.

Price

Sold

Item Reference: SA102466

Date of manufacture: 1800

Description

A very interesting Georgian Oak Logbin or Cellarette made in a solid piece of steamed and bent Oak with turned Oak base and lid. It has brass carrying handles to the side and a good brass hasp at the top which secures the lid closed. The small round back plates on one side handle needs replacing which is not difficult and not really necessary. It stands on shaped block feet and is in good condition.

Internal Ref: 022856

Seller Details

Malcolm Eglin Antiques

Hexham Northumberland United Kingdom

Tel: 07966 398123

International Tel: +44 7966 398123

