Description

This is a pair of framed antique, quality botanical prints, circa 1900. The coloured prints each have three botanical specimens to them in 16th Century style. They are attractively displayed in good gilt frames with deep heather coloured mounts which suit the colours in the prints nicely. The prints are both in excellent condition are a good size measuring 74 cms by 62 cms including the frames and have real impact on the wall. PROVENANCE: These were formerly the property of a Lady of Title from her London residence in Kensington. UK delivery is £25
