Description

This is a wonderful Faience dish dating from the early 19th Century, from Multan, one of the oldest cities in the Indian subcontinent. The dish is hand painted in rich shades of blue and turquoise and shows Sita and Rama walking in a garden within a broad border of birds. It has painted and impressed marks to the base. This has some imperfections and slight losses to the enamelling around the edge but otherwise is in great condition and is a good size, measuring 47 cms in diameter. UK delivery is £20
