Description

A Regency period, mahogany drop-leaf Pembroke breakfast / dining table, Circa 1810. Featuring solid, high quality, well figured with plum pudding detail, mahogany top of oblong form, with rounded corners and reeded edge. Constructed from 3 leaves of early, very heavy mahogany. The end leaves are supported by hinged brackets. Plain frieze with single drawer with pair of turned knob handles and cock-beaded edge, and matched faux drawer at the opposite side. Raised of ring turned fluted legs. Very much in the manner of Gillows of Lancaster. A excellent original table, unmolested, with no obvious signs of repair or damage. Cleaned, waxed and very much ready for use. Dimensions: This table measures approximately 73.25 cm (29") tall, 119.75 cm (47") wide leaves up, and 68.25 cm (27") wide leaves down, 117 cm (46") deep. Condition: Please see the pictures for details of the items condition. - This table is in very good condition, commensurate with its age, and is structurally sound and sturdy. Original and unmolested. Very straight, with no loose joints. No obvious signs of repair or damage. Only minor marks and blemishes. Cleaned, waxed and ready for use. - As with all vin...
