Description

An impressive and large antique oak gate leg dining table. The gate leg dining table has a rectangular shaped top with a drop leaf to either side. There is also a singular drawer to each end with brass drop handles. The drop leaves are supported by two hinged gate legs and form a large oval shaped table top when extended. The antique oak dining table is raised on six square and turned legs with straight stretcher supports. A particularly pleasing example with good colour and patina throughout. Nicely paired with a set of six antique oak farmhouse kitchen chairs (M- 4769). Item Ref; M-4913 . DIMENSIONS: Height – 74cm / Width - 148.5cm (when closed) 172cm (extended) / Depth - 48cm . CONDITION REPORT: In good antique condition throughout with some signs of age. There is surface wear in places including age-related scratches and stains to the top. There is also some splitting to the top, however, this does not affect the integrity of the product. The large antique oak gate leg dining table remains structurally solid and sound with well running drawers and hinges. Overall, a lovely example of its kind.
