Description

A superb pair of early 18thc Queen Anne brass candlesticks....they stand on attractive "faceted" bases and have a central "inverted acorn" knop....(a left over from the late 17thc), above a lower "dicus" shaped knop....both candlesticks are seamed and stand only 5.75" high....in excellent condition with no restoration.....I think these style of candlesticks are very desirable and certainly have an understated elegance... English. C1710-14.
