Description

A beautiful Victorian Scottish granite, silver, citrine and roe deer antler deskset. Made in Scotland around 1880, the granite comes from Corennie Quarry in Aberdeenshire. The base sits on four antler feet and the pen rest is silver tipped roe deer antlers. The salmon pink granite base is 28cms long and has an unmarked silver pen tray. There is an unmarked silver inkholder which is studded with citrines and has a domed granite lid. It is an unusual one off stunning piece that would grace any desk. Free delivery in the UK. Payment by bank transfer, over the phone, Paypal or cleared cheque.
