Description

This is a beautiful antique Victorian breakfront bookcase, masterfully crafted in rich figured walnut, circa 1860 in date. This grand bookcase features rounded corners and an upper section with a flared cornice over four glazed doors opening to the original shelves that are all adjustable to suit the size of your books. The lower section has four panel doors each opening to reveal a cupboard with a central shelf. It has its beautiful patina with original glazing as well as the original working locks and keys. There is no mistaking its superb quality and very grand design, which is certain to make it a talking point in your home and stand proud in whichever room you choose to display it. Condition: In really excellent condition, please see photos for confirmation. Dimensions in cm: Height 226 x Width 181 x Depth 48. Dimensions in inches: Height 7 foot, 5 inches x Width 5 foot, 11 inches x Depth 1 foot, 7 inches. Walnut. Walnut is a hard, dense, tight-grained wood that polishes to a very smooth finish. It is a popular and attractive wood whose colour ranges from near white in the sapwood to a dark hue in the heartwood. When dried in a kiln, walnut wood te...
