Description

An absolutely lovely vintage pendant. The phenomenal black opal displays an impressive play of colour, with clear flashes of green and blue. The stone is secured in a milgrained platinum rubover setting atop a closed yellow gold gallery, with a bright and lively transitional cut diamond – also rubover set in platinum and yellow gold – which hangs from a 'V' bale. Please choose a 16? or 18? 18k yellow gold chain (this is included in the price). Accompanied by a report from Gemmological Certification Services (GCS) stating the opal is natural and shows no indication of treatment. Cut – Oval cabochon black opal and old mine cut diamond. Colour – The diamond is G. Clarity – The diamond is VS2. Carat – The opal is approximately 2.30 carat; the diamond is approximately 0.15 carat. Circa – 1910. Measurements – The opal is approximately 11.3 x 8.8mm. From the top to the bottom of the pendant (not including the bale) is 18.6mm. Metal – 18k white and platinum. Tested.
