

SA1026426

Antique French Louis XVI Gilt Bronze Fire Screen Circa 1890

Price

SoldItem Reference: SA1026426*Date of manufacture: 19th Century

Dimensions

Height = 87 cm (34.3")

Width = 67 cm (26.4")

Description

Antique French Louis XVI Gilt Bronze Fire Screen Circa 1890. This captivating antique fire screen is a stunning example of French craftsmanship from the Louis XVI era. Crafted with meticulous attention to detail, it features intricate gilt bronze work that exudes opulence and sophistication. The fire screen stands at a graceful height of 87cm and spans a width of 67cm, making it the perfect addition to your living space. The fire screen embodies the timeless elegance and grace of the Louis XVI style, known for its classic and refined aesthetics. The beautiful gilt bronze detailing showcases fine craftsmanship and adds a touch of luxury to your home decor. Adorning this fire screen are cherub plaques to mesh that contribute to its unique charm and historical allure. These plaques feature delicate and intricate designs that are sure to captivate any admirer. Not only does this fire screen serve its practical purpose in shielding your fireplace, but it also serves as a work of art that enhances the overall beauty of your room.

Seller Details

Lee Hawkins Antiques & Interiors

Unit 15 Palmers Vale Business Centre Palmerston Road Barry
Glamorgan CF63 2XA United Kingdom

Tel: 01446 744271 or 07973 734452

International Tel: +44 1446 744271 or +44 07973 734452

