Description

Edwardian inlaid swivel desk chair This Edwardian inlaid swivel desk chair was made circa 1900. The mahogany frame with inlaid banding. It has a solid mahogany saddle seat, with the fine leather padded back and handrails. The leather has been dyed by hand and then finished with our antique finish. This work is specialist and takes a lot of time to make this look as if it has been there all its life. The swivel action on the base is attached to the 4 mahogany legs with castors under. This lovely desk chair is sure to compliment your desk and you will be delighted that you took the decision to own it.
