Description

An antique Yomut Turkmen Pallas Soumak Kilim carpet, Circa 1910, approximately 12'1" x 6'1". This soumak carpet has a madder red diamond field, enclosed by narrow borders. A handmade carpet, flat woven, finished with selvage ends and long fringes. Wool construction. A charming old carpet, some flaws but still very usable. Dimensions: This rug measures approximately 367 cm long including fringes, and 185 cm wide. Condition: Please see the pictures for details of the items condition. - This rug is in a fairly reasonably condition, commensurate with its age. There is some wear, losses to both fringes, and some fraying to the edge of one side. One hole, see pictures. Some minor marks and blemishes. Vacuumed, deodorised, and treated for moth prevention. Possibly benefit from a clean, but equally ready to use. - As with all vintage & antique furniture there will be signs of use, marks, wear & tear, etc.
