Description

A stunning pair of Art Deco old cut diamond drop earrings set into platinum. These are one of the best pairs of earrings that we have ever had! Very high quality HALLMARKS Hallmarked with a dogs head for Platinum in France. Back security fastening may be a later addition and not platinum, however really improves the sit and security of these very fine earrings MEASUREMENTS Large Old transitional cut diamonds; 2-3mm. Total carat weight; 3ct approximately for combined earrings These diamonds are beautiful. They are absolutely eye clean with a clarity of VS2- Si1 Colour of the diamonds G-H, these are absolutely bright bright white Total drop length 23mm x 18.5mm width at their widest point Stunning. Classic. Fine quality. A hoop exists at the base of the earrings allowing a drop to be attached of a pearl or diamond for example so these could have been further 'dressed up' for evening wear! Just fabulous For pierced ears, they feel beautifully secure when being worn and are very comfortable CONDITION Good condition, minimal signs of wear commensurate of age. Very bright and lively diamonds. High quality earrings
