Description

This is the sweetest mahogany canterbury . I love it simplicity - the straight lines and square tapered legs terminating in little brass casters make it very appealing. Although it has no drawer (who needs a drawer in a canterbury?) it has a lovely feature in that 2 of the divisions slide out which provides the option to put thicker books in. It has a carrying handle - always a nice feature and pretty little turnings at the top of the uprights. An ideal little present
