Description

A large Victorian silver heart shaped vesta case formed as a smooth rounded heart in a smooth polished design which sits nicely in the hand. The top of the heart hinges upwards providing a receptacle for matches. There is a ridged match strike to one side and a chain loop from which to hang the vesta. It is a lovely tactile piece of silver which sits nicely in the hand. This heart vesta is a particularly large example, and will be a desirable piece for many vesta collectors. Condition: in lovely antique condition, just one or two light scuffs to one side, not obvious and mentioned only for accuracy. The hinge is good and closed with a firm snap. Hallmarked as sterling silver by the Birmingham Assay Office with the makers mark for Abrahall and Bint and the date code for 1876. Measurements: Height 5.5 cm Width: 4.8 m Depth 1.5 cm Weight 31.5 grams
