Description

An exceptional late 17th century walnut armoire: the bonnet top cornice with well carved rococco scrolls to the centre of the frieze: attractive shaped fielded panellled doors above the shaped plinth and six original carved ebonised feet. Easily dismantles into several sections for transport and stairs. Provenance: from my father's, Roger Bichard, lifetime collection formerly at Seend house, Wiltshire; purchased it in Edinburgh in the early 1980s. 94 1/2" high 76" wide 25" deep

Internal Ref: p117
