Description

This is an elegant Regency period mirror of unusual size dating from around 1820. The mirror has a velvet backed upper frieze of hand carved and gilded scrolling acanthus leaves and florets. The outer frame has column supports with moulded and etched floral detail. The mirror has its original bevelled glass mercury plate. This is an unusual size being narrower than most mirrors from this period measuring 96 cms wide 75 cms high by 7cms deep. UK delivery can be arranged with our trusted furniture courier and costs £65 plus vat to most destinations.
