Description

A large and impressive French gueridon table with a mahogany base and round grey marble topped surface. The marble top features a sleek reeded edge which helps blend it into the three footed base. Each foot is subtly carved with leaves at the knees that then transitions to the substantially sized carved lion paws. The base is also situated on castors for ease of maneuverability. A remarkable piece imbued with an aura of elegance and class. In a very good condition with some slight signs of age related wear. Originates from France. Dated as circa 1820. Made from Mahogany & Marble.
