Description

A small Georgian oak wine table dating from the late 18th / early 19th Century. It has a round top set on an elegant baluster turned support with tripod splayed legs. It has a rich colour and is a lovely piece of country furniture. It is in good condition for its age. There are signs of age and use, some marks on the top surface and some general knocks around the base but nothing detrimental. There have been some old repairs to the legs but it is strong and sturdy and still displays well. It has been gently cleaned and polished and is ready for use. Approximate Dimensions : Height : 26" (66 cm) Diameter of top : 17 3/4" (45 cm) The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask.
