Description

A lovely small pine table dating from the early 20th Century. It stands on square tapering legs and has a drawer on one side with turned wooden knobs. The drawer is divided inside into various sections, ideal for cutlery or stationery. The pine has a lovely warm colour and a smooth waxed finish. It is a nice compact size, ideal for a small kitchen table with side leg clearance of 23 1/4" (59cm), 24" (61cm) at the back and 23" (58cm) below the drawer. It is in good condition for its age and has a nice aged patina with lots of signs of age and use. There are some minor surface marks and stains and small knocks around the legs but nothing detrimental and the table is strong and sturdy. There are some signs of historic worm which has all been treated as a precaution. The table has been cleaned and given a light wax and is ready for use.
