Description

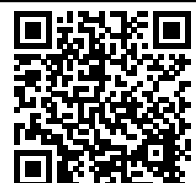

Dating to the late 19th Century this chunky, solid sword stick has a stag horn handle above a white metal collar down to a silver ringed opening that releases a very smart Toledo blade etched and blued on both sides with swags and swirls. The haft is a ribbed wood, possibly Ash, (if you know differently, let me know) it is in excellent condition ending in a brass ferrule. Size: Length - 35.5" (90cm) Handle - 5.25" (13.5cm)
