Description

A fine set of 19th century campaign hanging or table/floor standing shelves. These solid shelves with reeded decoration to the leading edges were designed and made to be knocked down, dismantled, for transporting easily from place to place, and then re-assembled again using the numbered pegs (1 to 6). Superb colour and patina and in excellent condition with historic marks, scratches and imperfections and wear consistent with the age and use of this piece. Please check, examine and enlarge the accompanying photos and if required please contact us for more photos before purchasing. Fitting and books for display only
