Description

A very impressive Victorian octagonal oak centre table attributed to Lamb of Manchester. The beautiful quarter sawn oak top shows off the grain beautifully, all supported of a impressive and decorative base, with four turned and fluted columns with carved detail, standing on the original four brass castors. Stamped to underside of base. In superb condition throughout, having been professionally repolished to top showroom condition. Photographs do not do this piece justice, nor the wonderful golden colour of the timber.
