Description

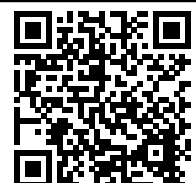

A small antique Edwardian music cabinet in mahogany dating from circa 1910 with label: "Henry Stone & Son Manufacturers Banbury". It comprises 6 drawers all with their original shaped drop handles. It features panelled sides with geometric designs and stands on elegant reeded legs, with brass and ceramic casters. Originally the drawers would have dropped down but are now fixed in place (like normal drawers) making it a good multi-drawer chest that could still be used as a music cabinet, or a collectors chest or perhaps a filing cabinet.

Construction/Wood: Mahogany Condition Report: Good original colour and patina with general wear and marks commensurate with age. Originally the drawers would have dropped down but are now fixed in place like standard drawers. Dimensions: Width: 51cm Depth: 37cm Height: 79cm Drawers Internal: 6cm High x 38cm Wide x 29cm Deep
