Description

We are delighted to offer this magnificent three-piece set of Victorian 18ct gold brooch/pendant & earrings. *Please note that the photographed antique hardshell box is not included and is for display purposes only. (Please do contact us should you wish to discuss sourcing a suitable antique box for this item). Majestically adorned with garnets and chrysoberyls, this lovely set features fine Victorian goldsmithing in Etruscan revival style. The overall design features the most wonderful naturalistic foliate design with the gemstones positioned as if to symbolise fruits, berries or buds. The intricacy is very fine with beautifully engraved accents and stippled texturing on the leaves. A splendid tasselled/chain festoon drapes from either side and terminates with a freely suspended drop with garnets and chrysoberyl. The size, proportion and geometric shaping of this set is absolutely delightful with each individual piece presenting inimitable style and classical elegance. Better yet, upon combining and wearing all three pieces together, this set exuberates opulence and is a stunning example of carefully thought-out and artistically designed jewellery. The earring...
