Description

A superb and highly desirable pair of Victorian burr walnut credenza of superior design with serpentine ended design. All beautifully inlaid with boxwood marquetry and all surmounted with original gilt bronze mounts and complete with original locks and keys. Circa 1860-1870. Whilst unmarked, we believe this particular model is likely to have been made by T H Filmer & Son, Berners Street, London; cabinet makers and upholsterers (fl.1835-1883). In superb condition throughout, professionally polished to the highest of standards.
