Description

An almost unbearably beautiful Victorian ring, set with five gems of the finest quality. The oval cut sapphire in the centre displays a deep royal blue with flashes of cobalt, which sit between a pair of super-white square cushion shaped old mine cut diamond with a pair of pigeon blood rubies at the end. The stone sit nice and snug to the finger within an ornate gallery, leading to a slim, slightly knife-edge yellow gold shank. A truly individual ring. Accompanied by an independent jewellery report from IGR (#30310467). Cut – Oval cut sapphire, cushion cut ruby and old mine cut diamonds. Colour – The diamonds are E to F. Clarity – The sapphire and rubies are loupe clean. The diamonds are SI1. Carat – The sapphire is approximately 0.50 carat. Each ruby is approximately 0.12 carat, and each diamond is conservatively gauged at 0.10 carat. Circa – 1890. Size – Q (UK) or 8 (US). Complimentary sizing is available, can go up or down. There is a limit to how much this can be altered, so please contact us before ordering should you need this ring resized. Measurements – From the outer edge of one ruby to the other is 15.2. The ring is 7mm at the widest point and sits 3mm f...
