Description

A good and rare set of eight Geo II carved burr walnut splat backed dining chairs to include two carvers. These are a superb set of early 18th century chairs. Circa 1730-1740. Shell carved knees raised on cabriole legs with turned H under stretchers. Just require new seat covers. The chair frames are all tight, No nasty repairs or damage. We also have a rare burr walnut three pedestal dining table, a perfect match for these fine chairs. We also offer a rare George II walnut three pedestal dining table and a matching set of eight complimentary period burr walnut dining chairs. Table is in another listing. The measurements listed are for the larger carver chairs. We would be happy to re cover these if you require them ready for use. Just send us your favoured materiel link and we will deal with it for you.
