Description

This very eye catching and magnificent clock is in the style of a LOUIS XIV example dating from the early 20thC. The waisted case is veneered in kingwood with floral inlay and superb gilt brass adornments throughout. The fully opening glazed front door allows the pendulum to be seen working. It encloses the 7" dial with white enamelled cartouche numerals with black Roman figures and black hands with a matted centre. The 8 day, pendulum driven movement, strikes with a double "ting-tank" strike on the half-hour and the hour. It has just been fully serviced by our BHI registered horologist and carries our usual 12mths full parts and labour guarantee. A splendid and beautiful clock that is offered for sale at a price commensurate with it's age. If you have a spare £5M perhaps you could buy the original!. All cards accepted.
