Description

A beautiful pair of Elizabeth II silver candelabras made in Sheffield in 1963 by Emile Viner the famous silversmith. They have sprung arms, removable sconces and all matching hallmarks. They are in excellent condition and would grace any dining table. The bases are loaded for stability and have green baize bases. I do have a third set if you want three matching but this price and details are for a pair. WEIGHT; 1684 grams or 55 ozst approx. (Loaded and weight for each one) Free delivery in the UK. Payment by bank transfer, over the phone, Paypal or cleared cheque.
