Description

A superb small late 17thc oak side table....provenance of a Suffolk manor house....it is in original untouched condition apart from a small loss to one side of the X stretcher, (see picture) which was lost so long ago it has gained a great patina where it was worn or broke away.... the table has the original bun turned feet, which is unusual for them not to be replacements....excellent natural colour from years of careful use....a real collectors piece...that is fresh to the market and not through an auction house..! English. C1670-90.
