Description

A superb tortoiseshell and silver mounted domed topped stationery box by C & R Comyns, with hallmarks for London 1896. The silver mounts are intricately worked with foliate and scrollwork. The original interior has compartments for papers, envelopes, stamps and a pen tray, fitted with red leather and red silk. The overall condition is very good commensurate with its age with only a small ink stain inside the box. We can deliver free of charge in UK mainland. Payment by bank transfer or PayPal
