Description

Pair of Edwardian bedside chests This Pair of Edwardian bedside chests were made circa 1900 and are made of Walnut. Each bedside chest has 3 graduated drawers with the original cast brass swing handle. Pairs of bedside chests/cabinets are incredibly hard to source, as they were not made at the time as people had a different lifestyle, and so were not required. Cabinetmakers adapted large Edwardian dressing tables that are/were redundant for the and made them into items that are relevant for today's modern home. This is a pure sense of recycling and now rather than not being used, the original cabinetmakers fine work can be taken advantage of as you enjoy them in your home. 35cms wide 13 3/4ins 41cms deep 16ins 62cms 24ins All Measurements are as accurate as possible.
