Description

An early 19th C. country house Pine Housekeepers Cupboard that will certainly provide you with all the storage space you need. The top half having three cupboards and a small set of internal drawers and the base having seven drawers and a smaller central cupboard. It has a decorative carved top plinth and stands on bun feet. It does have signs of wear and tear as would be expected of a piece this old and also some obvious historic repairs to one side of the base.
