Description

A set of 8 good quality chapel chairs dating from the early 20th Century. They are well made with solid elm seats, rear book rests and turned legs. One chair has a slightly shorter back than the rest of the set but the seats are the same height and they go together well. They are in good condition for their age and are solid and sturdy. They have developed a lovely aged patina over the years. There are some signs of age and use and some small knocks, minor splits and surface marks but nothing detrimental. There are a few minor signs of historic worm which has all been treated as a precaution and hasn't affected the chairs structurally or aesthetically. They have been cleaned and lightly polished and are ready for use. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask. Nationwide delivery available through our network of reliable couriers. Please get in touch for an accurate quote to your location.
