Description

Gents 1960s Roamer wrist watch. The watch has a Swiss Roamer MST 17-jewel hand-winding movement which is working nicely. The watch measures 34mm diameter excluding the winding crown and the lugs. The main body of the case is gold plated while the case back is stainless steel. The front of the case is in good condition. There is some wear to the back, mainly behind the winding crown. The lens is in lovely condition. The signed dial is in its original finish with original hands and seconds sweep. There is some light freckling across the dial. A later leather strap has been fitted. The watch comes in a new presentation box.
