Description

Fabulous Victorian mahogany leaf holder in the form of a whatnot in excellent condition. Its six shelves at the front are supported by beautifully carved and turned supports, ideal for books or displaying photos and other treasured items. Behind the shelves there is a solid cupboard with a door to the right side with small turned handle. Inside the cupboard there are green baize lined storage slots for four leaves. This is a fantastic item with a gorgeous rich colour and patina that can only be achieved through years of love and care.
