Description

A very pretty little table that would go anywhere. It stands on elegant square tapering legs and is a good height at which to sit (74cm). The full length bow fronted drawer is edged in boxwood and there is also inlay around the bottom of the top. The drawer has brass oval handles and has the original blue lining paper. It is in excellent condition. A small, robust and pretty period piece. The depth below is the maximum depth in the centre. At the sides the depth is 41cm.
