Description

A superb quality Edwardian period inlaid mahogany display cabinet by Maple & Co. of London. Of fine construction in solid mahogany with attractive mahogany veneers. Embellished with inlaid stringing in boxwood and banding in satinwood. Decorated with beautiful inlaid panels of floral swags, cornucopia and a central fan. The inlay is further heightened with delicate pen and ink work. With a single central door (lockable, key supplied) which opens to access a shelved and lined interior. All standing on elegant tapering legs. Professionally repolished and the interior re-lined (ivory coloured silk fabric) and now offered for sale in excellent condition, ready to go straight into the home. Dimensions: Width 127cms Depth 38cms Overall height 163cms Height to front of cabinet 140cms Maple & Co was established by John Maple, a shopkeeper from Horley, Surrey, who later opened a furniture shop in Tottenham Court Road. However it was his son, John Blundell Maple, who made Maples & Co a success. With exceptional business skills, John B. Maple took over the company while still a young man. By the 1880s they were the largest furniture store in the world, exported their fine furnitu...
