Description

An Attractive George II, mid 18th century, chest on stand, with the quarter veneered and cross banded top over an arrangement of two short and three long pine lined drawers, applied with brass back plates and swing handles, outlined with boxwood stringing, upon a stand with a conforming frieze, cabriole legs and pad feet. The Walnut finish on this furniture brings out the natural beauty of the wood and adds a touch of warmth and elegance to any home. Solid joints and construction, there is no evidence of any woodworm, unrestored and it's original condition. Splits into two sections for ease of installation.
