Description

A Fine Mahogany Long case Clock. This beautifully proportioned clock has an 8-day movement with anchor escapement and hour striking. The 12" break-arch brass and silvered dial with silent/strike, second and date chapter rings and blued steel hands. The fine-quality mahogany case has well-chosen flame veneers to the trunk door and to the base panel and has brass stop-fluted columns to the hood and trunk. The clock is topped off with fine fret-work and brass finials. It bears the name "Nick Gordelier, London" which is probably the retailer. In very good condition. 2200mm high, 480mm wide and 250mm deep. English. Circa 1780. Provenance: Private collection UK.
