Description

This campaign chest was made in England in the early 19th century for use in British India, graduated with two short and three long drawers, fitted with original flush brass skeletal handles, and terminating with bun feet. The furniture is in very good antique condition with minor historic knocks, marks, cracks, scratches, wear, imperfections, repairs and alterations, as is to be expected with functional antique furniture. There are no keys and the locks are consequently untested. Structurally sound, and there is no evidence of any woodworm.
