Description

Antique oak dresser base This Georgian oak pot board dresser was made circa 1830. This Antique oak dresser base is of a lovely nut-brown colour, a good patina and a great compact size. Fitted with 3 drawers along the top, and small candle/spice drawers each side of the 2 swept domed arches. The pot board consists of a pair of large boards joined at the centre behind the central turned leg. Having 3 fine ring turned front legs to the front joined to the pot board base, with the usual square back legs to the rear. Imagine the pleasure of ownership this will give you, as your family and friends admire your choice. It is a very tactile item that you will wish to run your hand along as past. We have found that dresser bases are very versatile and look great in so many places around your home. 143cms long 56ins 43cms deep 17ins 85cms high 33 1/2ins All Measurements are as accurate as possible.
