Description

Attractive 19th-century Large European Silver and Ruby Red Glass Mustard 14.5cm Very attractive design mustard cruet with hinged lid, slightly misfitting, large trophy-style handles and an elaborate pedestal base standing upon four feet. Delightful original ruby red glass liner that contracts superbly well with the silver body. There are tiny hallmarks in a couple of places that I cannot decipher. Tiny imperfections, but overall, a wonderful-looking silver mustard pot of great proportions.
