Description

This handsome spirit hip flask which has a detachable silver plated cup and hinged flip / bayonet top is marked to the base of the cup and collar with the maker's mark for James Dixon & Sons and dates from c1900. The outer of the top half which is made of glass is covered in a beautiful dark brown crocodile effect leather with a sight level to both sides and the bayonet top cap has a new cork fitted so seals well and does not leak. This handsome antique hip flask is a nice size, does not have any inscription or monogram so would make a very nice usable gift. Marks: Maker's marks JD&S for James Dixon & Sons. Dimensions: Height: 16.5 cm (6 1/2"). Width: 10.5 cm (4 1/4"). Depth: 3.5 cm (1 1/4"). Weight: 452 g. Condition: Very good used antique condition with signs of light use in keeping with age. Some light surface scratches, marks and a little wear to the silver plating. The hinged lid has a new cork fitted so does not leak. The leather and glass is in very sound condition. Please note that only the hip flask is included and any other items in the pictures are for scale only.
