Description

A fairly tall, slim antique pine cupboard (Circa: 1920), with a drawer at the top, 2 cupboard doors below, 4 adjustable shelves inside, and 2 beautiful columns running vertically out the edges of the doors. These doors open fully, but please be aware they require a width of 42" to open 90 degrees. See video for details. The shelves are mounted on supports which can be adjusted in height. This cupboard has been waxed some time ago, and is in good order, although you may like us to totally re-wax it for you. If you'd like it in its current condition: £520, I have put a price of £597 fully re-waxed, but please contact for more details, it may be that you'd like like the top re-waxed... Height: 54.5", width: 37.5" (42" when doors open 90 degrees), depth: 20.5"
