There is very pretty Rocaille(2) hand carving of acanthus leaves and shells to the splat backs and apron front of the chairs. Two of the chairs are a little different in that there is additional carving to the knee of the cabriole front legs. The cabriole legs of all the chairs have a carved detail to the inner shape of the wide knee and all have a ball and claw feet. The legs are joined by a shaped and turned H-shaped stretcher. There is a dry hand scraped paint finish which gives a wonderful time worn and aged patina. The chairs are sturdy and ready for re-upholstery which can be undertaken in-house at an additional cost ...
