An elegant early Victorian Pembroke table with an excellent time worn colour featuring a working drawer to one side and faux drawer to the other. The leaves raise up and rest on the smoothly operating supports, all above four tall ring turned legs terminating in original brass and ceramic castors. Very good condition, structurally all in good order with some attractive aged colour and some wear. There is evidence of very old long gone woodworm to the supports to the underside which are traditionally made from softer wood. English, mid 19th century.
